ELECTRIC LANES TO JOIN TO-GETHER MOST OF THE CITIES IN THIS PART OF STATE.

The original owners of the Oklahoma Power and Transmission Company have sold their interest, and the big plant at Byng, four and onehalf miles north of Ada, is to be connected up with most of the important cities in this part of the state. The present owners, it is said, have plenty of money to swing any deal and they bought this plant with the intention of making it one of the best in the southwest.

The lines of the company now excapitalists own the power plant at Durant and are now furnishing power and light at Madill. The break between Madill and Roff is to be closed up. The line from Durant is to be extended north to Atoka, Lehigh, Coalgate, Stonewall, and back to the point north of Ada. Immediately a line will be put in to Sulphur and North of Ada the line will take in Francis. Holdenville, Seminole, Seminole and Shawnee is now in.

Three men in a tub!" sang Anne Dexter as she swished the clothes about n the foaming suds, her firm round arms keeping time to the jingle.

Abruptly the tune ceased; with a gesture of dispair Anne raised her dripping hands from the soapy water. "It is too mean for anything!" she pouted. "All the other girls in the club have time to knit and make all sorts of pretty things for the soldiers' bamar, but I," with a disdainful glance at her ugly, checked apron. "I have to stay on the farm and chore around

In an instant the dark cloud disappeared from Anne's countenance; even her yellow curls bobbed with delight as she plunged her hands again into

"Captain Briggs said we might enter anything-anything!" she whispered softly, her dark eyes glowing with joy at the overwhelming thought.

The notice from the cantonment, some 15 miles away, had specified that any girls' club within a radius of 20 miles was eligible to enter articles in a soldiers' bazaar to be given for the benefit of the Red Cros on June 25. All such articles must not exceed the sum of $5 for materials, and would be auctioned off to the highest bidders. The maker of the contribution netting the largest amount would receive a prize of $10.

On the morning of June 25 Anne arose when the sun was yet barely peeking over the hilltops. She hustled and fed the pigs, milked the cows, watered the calves and prepared break-Before eight o'clock the dishes were washed, the kitchen made spick and span, and Anne had the house to herself. Cautiously she looked about for intruders, then finally barred the doors and set to work for the soldiers' bazaar with a smile of determination.

Ten o'clock saw a trim little figure in a plaid gingham dress trudging through the deep sand of the country road. In her hands she gingerly carried a large square pasteboard box. A chattering group of girls met her

A THOUSAND YOUS.

When you pick up your morning or afternoon newspaper and glance over the advertising you quite unconsciously multiply yourself a thousand times.

In half or three-quarters of an hour you can, metaphorically speaking, visit every progressive store in town. You virtually poke your head into every department of every department store. You run into the florist's, the confectioner's, the oculist's, the leading groceries, banks, theaters, all the various places that supply the things that make this the twentieth century and life worth the living. Here is a greater choice in clothing, food, furniture, books, pictures, musical instruments, travel, entertainment, opportunities for investment, the service of public utility corporations than any monarch of old could command.

It would easily take a thousand yous, traveling hard all day, to find out for yourself what the advertisements tell you in a few minutes morning or evening.

They deserve your attention. They deserve your confidence. Without them, without the progressive spirit of the merchants and manufacturers who back them, the great abundance of things you now enjoy would be a memory-or something still to be realized. Without advertising the prices you would have to pay for many of the necessities you now buy for a few pennies would make a dollar look like a snowball on the kitchen range.

Read the advertisements. Read them for your own information and advantage. Read them to encourage the advertisers who are making these better things possible for you.

The larger work by far of the Normal school, however, has been to furnish teachers for the children of the rural and village districts.

In 1918 there were enrolled 366, 791 children in the schools of Oklahoma exclusive of the independent districts. While I do not have the exact figures at hand it is safe to assume that East Central District had nearly one-sixth of these, or about 60,000. There are about 1,000 teachers of such schools in our dis-As the life of a teacher is on the average, four years in the profession, there have probably been schools of our district. A large part of them have had their training in East Central Normal. The teachers of all people are the ones who get nearest to the people. Consequently East Central reaches something like 60,000 school children annually-a great responsibility, isn't it?

But East Central has had to do her work with a comparatively small faculty and only one building. It looks as if the legislature will give us another building at this time, which will enable the school to take a splendid forward movement. The appropriation for running expenses will be larger next year than ever, though at this time it cannot be told

East Central's greatest desire is to be able to serve its district. It welcomes people from other parts of Oklahoma and other states, but it is peculiarly interested in the work of the eleven counties allotted to it. It lesires most earnestly to co-operate district to the end that every child in the district may have an opportunity to prepare himself for a life

BRIEF SKETCH OF ORIGIN AND GROWTH OF STATE'S LEAD-ING NORMAL.

The East Central State Normal owes its existence primarily to the desire of the early citizens of Ada to see this city the educational center of this part of Oklahoma. Long before statehood, when this was still a part of the Indian Territory, the people were already united to present the claims of Ada to a normal at the very first opportunity after a legislature was chosen, and they never lost sight of this object in the midst of the turmoil and heat of the campaigns preceding statehood.

When the First legislature conrened, Ada was on the ground and hroughout that session, until at the suggestion of Governor Haskell it was decided that there should be no legislation for new schools. Ada watched every move.

When the second legislature convened the fight opened in earnest. At a heavy outlay of money and time citizens of both political parties haunted Guthrie. The fight was between Ada and Durant, Tahlequah being conceded the Northeastern normal without opposition. In the final round Durant won out and gloom settled over Ada for a few days, for both Democratic and Republican caucuses had agreed that only two normals were to be established.

However, the senate unexpectedly passed a bill giving Ada a normal, and then about half the male population boarded the train for Guthrie to urge the house to take similar action. It was almost the very last day of the session and what was done had to be done quickly. So well was the matter handled that the bill went through with a whoop and a few days later was signed by Governor

The measure carried an appropriation of $100,000 for a building, but none for maintenance. To meet this problem the board of education of Ada agreed to use part of its funds for this purpose and donate the high school building, then in course of construction, for use until the normal building could be erected. Besides this several patriotic citizens signed a note of huge dimensions on which banks, none too flush at that time, loaned enough to tide the school over until the legislature met again, taking chances on what the legislature might do in the way of meeting this obligation. Fortunately they lost nothing in the end. The second term of the school opened in the new ell Russell attempted to initiate a bill to abolish it, but this effort fell to the ground. Later, however, it was confronted with a real danger when the Akin bill was initiated. Ada raised necessary funds, employed competent attorneys and succeeded in killing the measure before it had a chance to come to a vote. A bill or two in the legislature included the Ada school in the list to be killed, but none made any progress.

The first session of the normal was held in the Methodist church early in September, 1909, at which time Presdent Briles and faculty were extend-

In spite of all obstacles, the normal grew from the first and made marked progress which has never been interrupted, except by the war which took many of its students to

J. M. Gordon was elected to the presidency in 1916 and under his guidance the school has continued its career of usefulness and prosperity.

In the East Central normal the hopes of those who first conceived the idea of locating it here have been fully realized. They have seen it grow from nothing to second in point of numbers and unsurpassed by none n efficiency. When it began its career competent teachers in this district were rare. It was the exception to find one who was even a high school graduate. As a result of ten years work thousands have come under the influence of East Central and at least 75 percent of the teachers of this district have been students within its walls, besides many teaching elsewhere. A first grade certificate or diploma is no longer a rarity, for the standard has been steadily elevated until friends of education no longer have occasion to apologize for conditions in the East Central district.

It Pays To Read Advertisements

You've often heard the saying, "It pays to advertise." That is true. And it also pays to read advertisements—pays you. If you read advertisements consistently for any length of time you will agree that this statement is also true.

It pays you in money saved. There are many real bargains offered from time to time in the advertisements appearing in this paper. Watch for them.

It pays you in satisfaction. When a merchant asks you to come to his store he obligates himself to sell you quality goods "as advertised." You have a right to expect satisfaction from what you buy and you get it.

It pays you in time saved. When you know exactly what you want to buy and where you want to buy it, you don't have to "look around" and waste time finding it.

Don't YOU want to save money and time? Wouldn't you like to be sure of getting satisfactory service and quality goods every time you go to a store? Then read the advertisements and patronize the stores which can serve you best.

SPARTACUS HERO OF GERMAN REDS

Leader of Revolt by Slaves IS Honored by Liebknecht Followers.

DEFIED ROMANS FOR YEARS

Slaves, Under Leadership of Man Chosen as Godfather of German Revolution, Captured Most of Southern Italy.

New York.-Perhaps it's just as well to call them Sparts. Just when we were learning to say bolsheviki, and were learning to give it about as universal an application as we used to give to camouflage before that sorely tried word was officially entombed by the Society for the Decent Burial of Hackneyed Words, along came these Germans, with their Schrecklichkeit and head cheese, and sprung Spartacus on us. That was right in line with their other unfair tactics, gas, flame throwers and gingerbread saloon-fronts.

But now that we have Spartacus with us, what are we going to do about it?

"The Spartacus group" was the name the German ultra radicals adoptshingle in the blood-letting business. But that sort of name never would do. So, we have the papers, in their extremity, alluding to them variously as Spartacides, Spartacans, Spartacites and Spartaci. Objection is made to the first-mentioned designation beenuse it is very close to homocide, suicide, regicide, fratracide, insecticide and such like occupations. There is not lacking a considerable party which claims spartacism is all of that and more. But, the ending-"cide," from the Latin caedo, to kill, always kills whatever it is added to. Kills what it goes after, as it were. A homocide is a mankiller, a suicide is a selfkiller, and an insecticide is an insect killer. So a Spartacide would be a Spartacuskiller. And that isn't what we want to say at all.

And Not Only That-

In the same way a Spartaeusser might be accused of heaping profane invective upon a Spartacus and all his works, and a Spartacan might be suspected of being a mere subterfuge for tying a can on one end of Spartacus, and you can see very easily how a Spartacrat might be mixed up with an aristocrat.

Maybe it's just as well to call them Sparts, or just sparts, and thereby avoid complications.

The sparts take their name from a certain Mr. Spartacus, whose initials have been lost somewhere in the shuffle. He started life as a modest shepherd in Thrace, perhaps somewhere in what was recently European Turkey, during the century just preceding the birth of Christ. Think of going back that far for somebody to name your political party after!

The young Mr. Spartacus, tiring of keeping the night watches over his sheep became a robber chief, the chroniclers say. They do not specify whether he stuck up banks or picked

The sport fans decided to match him against a muchtouted gladiator recently imported from Asia, and for that purpose put him in a training camp for gladiators. He escaped as soon as he had learned the fundamentals of gladiating, and issued a declaration of independence, asserting that all slaves were thenceforth free. Whereupon every gentle-

Held Out for Three Years.

Under leadership of Spartacus, the slaves captured most of southern Italy, and held out for nearly three years against the best forces the government could send against them. But at last they were beaten by an army under Luculius, just as they were about to seize all the shipping board's ships and dash back to Thrace. Spartacus died with his men, leading a charge.

Such was the gentleman whom the German radicals have chosen as godfather of the revolution. Liebknechterines, Liebneckkers, Lieb necktights, Liebnecktars, Liebnecrats or something like that would have sounded so much better!

THE EAST CENTRAL STATE NORMAL Bids You Welcome

--- and hopes that your stay in Ada will be both pleasant and profitable. invited to use the buildings and equipment of the Normal in any way you desire, and to ask any questions of the members of the faculty.

THE SUMMER TERM FOR 1919 Begins May 30

And will continue until July 26

School will be held six days a week and the term will continue eight weeks and two days, affording the teachers attending the opportunity to make full credit for a regular three-month term's work. This is expected to be one of the most profitable terms of the Normal's history.

Bright Prospect

We are planning to have in the Normal this summer some of the best pedagogical material available. Every member of the faculty will be a specialist in the line of work assigned, and those attending will have rare opportunities to go forward in the profession.

It appears now that we shall have a large enrollment, probably the largest in the history of the school. Preparations will be made to take care comfortably of every one who comes. The East Central Normal has always prided itself on the quality of work done rather than the magniture of the enrollment. We are anxious now not only to have the best work in the state, but to have an enrollment as large as that of any other normal school. We believe we will have this enrollment this summer.

The Spring Term

Will open March 18, one week from next Tuesday.

Preparations have been made to make this term especially profitable to teachers who are finishing their school terms and are planning to continue their studies. By entering for the spring term, time can be saved in getting a life certificate. The time has come when training means more money to the teacher as well as equipping one to be of greater service in the work.

CERTIFICATES

1. Every Normal certificate is a state certificate.

2. The certificate, good for two years and equivalent to a first-grade county certificate, requires sixteen highschool units, four of which must be made in the Normal School.

3. The certificate, good for one year and automatically renewable and equivalent to a third-grade county certificate, requires eight high school units, two-thirds of which must be made in the Normal School.

DAILY HEALTH TALKS What Is The Cause of

Backache? BY DOCTOR CORNELL

Backache is perhaps the most common ailment from which women suffer. Rarely do you find anybody free from it. Sometimes the cause is obscure, but Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., a high medical authority, says the cause is very often a form of catarrh that settles in the delicate membranes of the feminine organs. When these organs are inflamed, the first symptom is backache, accompanied by bearingdown sensations, weakness, unhealthy discharges, irregularity, painful periods, irritation, headache and a general run-down condition. Any woman in this condition is to be pitied, but pity does not cure. The trouble calls for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is a separate and distinct medicine for women. It is made of roots and herbs put up without alcohol or just completed on this part of the nothing else in his prescription. Favorite Prescription is a natural remedy for women, for the vegetable growths of which it is made seem to have been intended by Nature for that very purpose. Thousands of girls and women, young and old, have taken it, and thousands have written grateful letters to Dr. Pierce saying it made them well. In taking Favorite Prescription, it is reassuring to know that it goes straight to the cause of the trouble. There is but one way to overcome sickness. and that is to overcome the cause. That is precisely what Favorite Prescription is intended to do.
